The Thicket is an attractive collection of individual properties situated in rolling Downland countryside just north west of Newbury. From The Thicket it is a short drive to Leckhampstead. Leckhampstead village is in a delightful rural setting surrounded by rolling countryside yet it is not remote being 7 miles from Newbury and 8 miles from Wantage. The M4 junction 13 is 5½ miles away and junction 14 is 7 miles. The next village of Chaddleworth still has a village shop/post office and primary school. There is also a primary school at Brightwalton.

DESCRIPTION

White Cottage is an individual detached thatched cottage, which is Grade II Listed, and has retained a great deal of its original charm and character. The property has exposed beams throughout (please note that the ceilings are low and in places are only 1.73 meters high) and there are 2 fireplaces which are currently sealed but could probably be reopened and used if required. The cottage currently has 2 reception rooms, a small kitchen and a ground floor bathroom. Upstairs there is a large area of landing which has been used in the past for a space for a single bed, together with the main and only bedroom. Attached to one side of the building is an additional garden store.
