SITUATION

Benham Park is a lovely location and is in the former Park Land of the principal house of the Benham Estate. It is a very quiet and special location with a small number of individual homes located within the Park, all approached through the original gates on the edge of the village of Marsh Benham. The house is surrounded by beautiful countryside, and it is only a short walk to the Red House, which is an active local pub. Excellent facilities and mainline train stations can be found in the neighbouring towns of Newbury and Hungerford. Newbury town offers a good selection of shops and supermarkets. There are plenty of restaurants, cafés, public houses and leisure facilities, including Newbury Racecourse, the attractive Kennet & Avon canal, Vue cinema, Corn Exchange and Watermill theatres. There are arts and sports centres, health and golf clubs, a bowls club, museums and an outdoor market on Thursdays and Saturdays. There are well regarded schools for all age groups and Newbury College, with its campus to the south of the town. There is excellent access to the major road routes of A34 and M4 and the mainline rail station to London (Paddington).
